

Digital Communications Officer

Communications & External Affairs
Quality Meat Scotland

Are you passionate about red meat from Scotland? Do you have experience working in digital communications?

If you have answered 'yes', then Quality Meat Scotland (QMS) has the role for you!

QMS is the Scottish Red Meat Levy body. We work with the Scottish red meat industry to lead the development of the sector by driving demand from consumers who recognise our brands as a mark of integrity. Our vision is to make Scotland: the choice for premium red meat.

We have an exciting role in our Communications & External Affairs department as Digital Communications Officer, who will work alongside the Communications Manager to deliver clear, engaging content across the QMS digital media channels.

As Digital Communications Officer at QMS, no two working days will be the same. One day you could be working on developing infographics to highlight the positive impact of Scottish red meat production, the next recording some short videos from a QMS event or scheduling social media posts.

This role is a permanent and full time, however we are focused on getting the right candidate, so flexible working patterns could be considered. Our office is based in the outskirts of Edinburgh, however there is also a great deal of flexibility on location. We offer a comprehensive remuneration and reward package, including a competitive salary, 25 days holidays plus statutory holidays, company maternity policy and 10% employer pension contribution.

Salary/ Benefits - (Salary band 3) with a permanent salary of £31,471 plus 10% company pension contribution, enhanced sickness and maternity pay schemes, death in service benefit and 36 days holiday per year, including statutory holidays.
